Why This Kundan Necklace Set Stands Out

Not only is this artisan necklace set — yep, set! — An accessory is a piece of functional campaign art to wear. Here are at least a couple of reasons you should make it a special consideration in your collection:

- Authentic Kundan Work: Traditional Kundan setting of the vintage variety
- Sea green touches: jangling colour refreshment, day or night
- Golden Monalisa Beads, Red a brilliant luster to give an expensive look
- Perfect for Bride / Ethnic Wear, can be worn in a new wedding, sangeet, mehendi, or maybe during Diwali or early wear.
- It goes Match: Earring pair goes to match with your outfit

Versatility of the Design

This Kundan Sea Green Necklace Set is the perfect blend of elegance and ease, crafted to elevate any outfit, whether you're dressing up for a big celebration or a cozy festive gathering. It's lightweight, regal, and incredibly versatile. Pair it with a traditional lehenga, a graceful saree, or even a simple silk kurta set—it adapts beautifully to every style.

The soft sea green tones blend seamlessly with both warm and cool color palettes, while the golden Monalisa beads add a subtle festive shimmer that makes it ideal for day or night events.

Style it for Different Occasions:

- Engagement Ceremony Look: Pair it with a pastel-hued lehenga for a soft, romantic vibe.
- Wedding Reception Elegance: Style it with a dark green or deep maroon saree for a classic, luxurious touch.

Craftsmanship You Can Feel

The handler set each bead and Kundan stone to no end through submission, which has assisted in making the Kundan stones durable and tight yet simple. Not only are they generous in appearance, but they also reflect light in the most elegant manner, subtly twinkling as you move the neck adornment around. We adore how the Monalisa beads give an extra sparkle to your neck.

Care Tips for Lasting Shine

- Keep in a dry place, in a soft-lined box or pouch
- Stay away from direct application of your perfumes or sprays.

- Wipe after use with a soft, dry cloth
